

Academic Integrity Certification Form

By enrolling in an Engineering Outreach (EO)-delivered course, all students have agreed to act in a manner consistent with the University of Idaho's lawful mission, processes, and functions. The Student Code of Conduct explains the rules and regulations for maintaining academic integrity and applies to all students who have enrolled in University of Idaho (UI) courses, including those delivered by EO. (Note: See FHS 2300 from UI's Faculty Staff Handbook for details.)

EO students and faculty are responsible for following UI's Student Code of Conduct. Acts of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to the following:

- a. Cheating: Using any unauthorized assistance or having unauthorized materials while taking quizzes, tests, examinations or other assignments, including copying from another's quiz, test, examination, or other assignment or allowing another to copy from one's own quiz, test, examination, or other assignment; using sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; acquiring, without permission, tests or other academic material belonging to the instructor or another member of the University faculty or staff; engaging in any behavior prohibited by the instructor in the course syllabus or in class discussion; or engaging in other behavior that a reasonable person would consider to be cheating.
- b. Plagiarism: Using, by paraphrase or direct quotation, the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment; using materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials without prior authorization by the instructor; or engaging in other behavior that a reasonable person would consider plagiarism.
- c. Furnishing false information: Includes giving false information or false representations to any University official, instructor, or office. Submission of false information or withholding information at the time of admission or readmission may make an individual ineligible for admission to or continuation at the University.

By submitting this form I, _____, have read and understand the
